119TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. —

Congratulating the Seattle Seahawks for winning Super Bowl LX
and the 12th Man for their unwavering support

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Ms. DelBene (for herself, Ms. Jayapal of Washington, Mr. Larsen of Washington, Ms. Gluesenkamp Perez of Washington, Mr. Newhouse of Washington, Ms. Randall of Washington, Ms. Schrier of Washington, Mr. Smith of Washington, Ms. Strickland of Washington, and Mr. Baumgartner of Washington) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Oversight and Accountability

RESOLUTION

and the 12th Man for their unwavering support.

Whereas, on February 8, 2026, the Seattle Seahawks defeated the New England Patriots by a score of 29–13 to capture their second Super Bowl title in franchise history;

Whereas, head coach Mike Macdonald is the first head coach who also calls defensive plays to win a Super Bowl and the third youngest head coach to win a Super Bowl in National Football League (NFL) history;

Whereas Seahawks General Manager (GM) John Schneider is the only GM in NFL history to win two Super Bowls with two completely different rosters;

Whereas, running back Kenneth Walker III was named Super Bowl LX Most Valuable Player after rushing 27 times for 135 yards, becoming the first running back to earn Super Bowl MVP honors since 1998;

Whereas, kicker Jason Myers set a new Super Bowl record by converting five field goals, scoring a total of 17 points and becoming the first player in NFL history to exceed 200 points in a season (regular and postseason combined);

Whereas, quarterback Sam Darnold threw for 202 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions;

Whereas, the Seahawks' defense recorded six sacks, forced three turnovers, and dominated throughout, holding the Patriots scoreless for three quarters;

Whereas, the Seahawks scored a key offensive touchdown on a 16-yard pass to tight end AJ Barner following a Patriots fumble early in the fourth quarter;

Whereas, linebacker Uchenna Nwosu returned an interception 45 yards for a touchdown, helping to seal the Seahawks' victory;

Whereas, Washington State proudly recognizes Cooper Kupp and Shane Lemieux of Yakima, and Abraham Lucas of Everett, and whose exceptional talent and dedication on the field reflect the talent, determination, and character nurtured in our communities;

Whereas, Cooper Kupp, from Yakima, Washington, and graduate of Davis High School and Eastern Washington University, has distinguished himself as one of the NFL's premier wide receivers and a Super Bowl MVP;

Whereas, Abraham Lucas, born and raised in Everett, Washington, and a graduate of Archbishop Murphy High School and Washington State University, has become a key contributor on the Seahawks' offensive line, showcasing talent developed in our state's communities and schools;

Whereas, Shane Lemieux, from Yakima, Washington, and graduate of West Valley High School and the University of Oregon, has distinguished himself as an accomplished NFL offensive lineman;

Whereas in December 1984, the Seahawks retired the number 12 in honor of their fan base, the loudest, proudest and most impactful group of fans in sports, which is known as "the 12s";

Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

- (1) Congratulates –
 - (A) Seattle Seahawks for their triumphant victory in Super Bowl LX and acknowledges the exceptional performances of players, coaches, and support staff;
 - (B) Seahawks Chair Jody Allen;
 - (C) Seahawks President Chuck Arnold;

- (D) Seahawks President of Football
Operations/General Manager John Schneider;
- (E) Seahawks Head Coach Mike
Macdonald

- (2) Recognizes Kenneth Walker III for his MVP performance and historic impact on the game;
- (3) Commends Jason Myers for his record-breaking five field goals and outstanding scoring achievement;
- (4) Salutes the Seahawks' defense for its dominance, resilience, and pivotal role in securing the championship;
- (5) Celebrates the Seahawks 12th Man, for being the most loyal and loudest sports fans in the world; and
- (6) Requests that the Clerk of the House transmit an enrolled copy of this resolution to –
 - (A) Seahawks Chair Jody Allen;
 - (B) Seahawks President Chuck Arnoldl
 - (C) Seahawks President of Football
Operations/General Manager John Schneider;
